FF FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE FRENCH EMPIRE DESIGNS.

A style decidedly the outgrowth of the French Revolution. A Parsian of that period said:—"We have changed everything; freedom now consolidated, France has restored the pure taste for the antique." Whence came the symbols of oons-torches, lances, Phrygian caps of iberty, winged figures, sphinxes and claw

What are these but history wrought into beauty? Trace them to-day in our modern motifs—a bureau surmounted by the cap of liberty, a great chair carved with flying figures, a table with mass ve claw feet speak of the Napoleonic influence. For nistory wrought in furniture you must "BUY OF THE MAKER"
